*Christ has no body but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which He looks with compassion on this world,
Yours are the feet with which
He walks to do good, Yours are the hands, with which He blesses all the world.
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes,
you are His body.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.*

SAINT OF THE MONTH

St. John Neumann – January 5

John Neumann was born in Bohemia (now part of the Czech Republic) in 1811. After studying for the priesthood in Prague and then not being allowed to be ordained in Europe due to an overage of priests there, John came to New York and was ordained a priest to do missionary work there, especially among the German immigrants. Longing for community, John joined the Redemptorists, an order dedicated to helping the poor and most abandoned. He learned Spanish, French, Italian and Dutch to be able to hear confessions and celebrate Mass in each of the many villages he visited. John had an exceptional organizing ability, which he used to spread the Good News. John was named bishop of Philadelphia, where he organized the first Diocesan Catholic school system, increasing the number of pupils almost twentyfold within a few years. He died in 1860 at the age of 48 and is buried in St. Peter Church in Philadelphia. Well known for his holiness, spiritual writing and preaching, John Neumann became the first American bishop to be beatified (Oct. 13, 1963). He was canonized in 1977.

Merciful Father, You have given me all that I have in this world, even life itself. In all my daily needs, help me to remember the needs of others too. Make me selfless as St. John Neumann.

Throughout my life, give me the grace to direct my first thoughts to the service of You and of others. Make my prayer – “Your will be done” knowing that in Your mercy and love, Your will for me is my sanctification. I ask this through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.
